This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.

The Harbor Master in Gdynia, Gudecki, was suddenly called to Moscow about three weeks ago. He went as a member of the committee for the rebuilding of Gdynia Harbor to take part in some negotiations. Gudecki, who is very nationalistic and anything but pro-Russian, was very apprehensive over the journey, but has since then returned and moved to Stettin, where now he is harbor master. The position of Harbor Master in Gdynia has been taken over by Chief pilot Lecki.

NO CHANGE in Class.
